

How The Wigwam Got Its Name

Hey pal, nice piece on David C. Bush. Do you know how that building got the name Wigwam? The story I remember hearing was that it was a name submitted (by drawing/lottery) by the little brother of Viet Nam MIA Peter Cressman (for whom the bridge is named) whose other brother Steve was my classmate. They lived at the top of Oneida. Let's try and have lunch if you have time in the next few weeks. Hope all is well.

by Richard Walker